MISSION STATEMENT

St. Michael the Archangel Parish, a diverse, spiritual community in action, is dedicated to drawing people to Christ, to growing disciples, and to making church and worship matter. We do this (1) through our liturgical worship as we remember and celebrate in memory of Him; (2) through the proclamation of the Good News, as we believe and profess the message of Jesus Christ not only from the pulpit, but also in the way we live our lives; (3) through living out our stewardship of time, talent, and treasure in the service of the needs of our church, the needs of one another, and the needs of those who seek divine help through our doors.

ALTAR OFFERINGS

The Altar Bread, Altar Wine and Sanctuary Lamp are offered for St. Michael's Parishioners.

We want to adorn our Sanctuary with memorial flowers during this Christmas season so that our loved ones could join us in celebrating this Salvation mystery. Please donate flowers in memory of a loved one or in gratitude to good. Our budget for decorating this year is $3,500. Flower envelopes are in the vestibule of the Church and in your collection envelopes. Thank you.

HOLY FAMILY

Today's readings speak to us about living as a family and a community. They confirm that both require work, generosity, patience and openness to the unexpected. We look to the Holy Family as a model for ourselves, and we learn — with some relief — that Jesus' parents were as challenged and confounded as we often are. We can be like them because they were like us in so many ways.

1 Sm 1:20-22, 24-28 Hannah offers her only child, Samuel as a gift to the Lord.

Ps 84 Blessed are they who dwell in your house, O Lord.

Col 3:12-17 Living as a family and a community.

Lk 2:41-52 Jesus parents find him in the Temple among the teachers.

Parish online giving is available for your convenience, especially if you will not be attending mass at St. Michael's during the holidays. Thank you for your generosity.

On behalf of the parish, I would like to thank all the members of our Staff, the School Principal and in a very special way the chair of our Parish Social Events Committee Mrs. Cynthia Grandeza and the Decoration Committee Chair, Mr. Med Domingo and all their committee members for making Cardinal Tobin's reception on Sunday, December 16th a complete success. Every detail from the decorations, music, food and table settings were beautiful. We appreciate all the hard work and all your dedication to the parish. We thank our Parishioners for coming down to the Lower Church to receive the cardinal.

Thank you Lord for giving me the brand new year ahead.

 The year ahead is empty. Help me fill it with good things.
 Each new day filled with joy and happiness it brings.
 Amen.

SPECIAL NEW YEAR MESSAGE

As we celebrate Christmas and enter into the blessings of the New Year, I just want to share this simple reflection about the mystery of life. The seed for this thought was planted in me while I was watching the beautiful fireworks displayed by the township of union this past July 4th independence Day celebration. We were all sitting in the parking lot of the church and you could hear the shots go off, then the fireworks rising and shining, and finally blasting into the air scattering its beautiful colors. For a few seconds, it looked awesomely beautiful and then suddenly it faded out into the thin air with no imprints left. After a few minutes, it dawned on me that life could just be exactly like that – a beam of light, so present today but that can suddenly fade out and die.

I then thought to myself, if this is how life could be, we should then be in the business of using every single opportunity we have to live it out loud; to make the best use of it while it lasts; to commit to life – to commit not just to belong but to participate; not just to care but to stretch out our hands and help; not just to believe but to practice; not just to be fair but to be just, not just to give but to be generous; not just to forgive but to forget; not just to dream but to act. Many a time, we are too focused on yesterday and on tomorrow that we forget to live out today. Yet, yesterday is gone forever and we do not know what tomorrow will bring. Today is all that we have. Bottom line, we are perishable items and life needs to be lived accordingly.

Therefore, as this New Year dawns upon us, let's not waste time worrying, otherwise you will be using your imagination to magnify the negative and create unwarranted nightmares. Let's not waste time being angry, otherwise you will only be adding more wrinkles to your face instead of dimples. Let's not waste time harboring grudges and unforgiveness, for you do not want God to remember all your sins in detail. Let's not waste time being envious of others, for you cannot attract what you attack! Let's not spend time cursing and reviling, for you will only be telling others how low you have gotten. Let's not waste time hurting people in word and deed, for whatever you bring into existence will eventually come back to you as experience. Let's not waste time gossiping and sowing seeds of discord, for what goes around comes around. Let's not waste time sitting around with scoffers and detractors, for one day your name will be on their list. Let's not waste time worrying that we will one day die, for then you will never begin to live life anyway. Let's not waste time in regrets and reliving yesterday's problems, for you are simply ruining today's joy. Let's not waste time procrastinating, for you are simply using the future to escape the task at hand. Let's not waste time living in fear, for you will only be frustrating the energy needed for good living. Let's not waste time waiting upon destiny and good luck, for you will only be hoping for things to happen to you instead of making them happen for you. Let's not waste time looking for people's approval, for you will only be living your life for others and not for yourself and your God. Let's not waste time living in misery, for misery loves miserable company. Let's not waste time in hate and bigotry, for you will only be draining joy and peace out of your life. Let's not waste time being lonely, for loneliness is not lack of company but lack of purpose.

My dear friends, the New Year is a blessing and one more opportunity to live out our destiny with the unfailing recognition that life is too short and that we need to live it while we can. As we embrace the New Year therefore, let our eyes see the best; let our hearts forgive the worst; let our minds think good thoughts; let our souls never lose faith and let our spirits rejoice in the Lord God our Savior. Happy New Year!
